

SAVE THE DATE!

Frankie Manning Day is coming Saturday, May 25!

About us:

Erin and Tami are sisters who have co-owned and operated PBDA since 1983 making this their 41st year! The Stevens sisters are credited with being a driving force behind the resurgence of Swing in the 1980s. Their goal with PBDA is to promote all forms of American social dancing and share the joy!

Join our classes and Saturday night Swing dances featuring some of the best Swing bands around. It's a proven fact that dancing promotes health and happiness – come join the fun! No partner needed!

How To Register:

Just show up! We'll register you at the door. Cash, checks, Venmo and credit cards accepted.

Prices: $20 per class, per person.

You can pay for each class individually, or purchase a Series Card for a discounted price listed with each class.

Join any class as late as the second meeting. Series cards may be purchased through second meeting.

Give the Gift of Dance – Gift Certificates for Dances, Classes and Private Lessons are available!
